

Strong Password

What and Why ?

Strong Password

Creating strong password

- Strong and easy to remember Password

A strong Password should have combinations of Alphabets, Numbers and Characters such as c.!@*^&;)(~@. Remembering these passwords are very difficult.

Things to remember while creating a password

- Use at least 8 characters or more to create a password
- Use various combinations of characters while creating a password
- Avoid using the words from dictionary. They can be cracked easily

Strong password

Creating strong password

- Create a password such that it can be remembered
- A password must be difficult to guess
- Change the password frequently at least 2 weeks once

